Afterlife

The time has gone it passed too quick
Feeling old feeling weak
No more will to Carry on
I lay down to find eternal rest

I close my eyes, my life is passing by
A white spot, so far away
A bright light surrounding me
I feel so free no borders anymore

Could this be me the one I see
My god, the one I look upon is me
Could this be me the one I see
My god the one I look upon is me

I pass the gate of human life
The fallen angel is calling me
Or is it god himself
Don't know if it's limbo, heaven or hell

Could this be me the one I see...

My soul will rest perpetual
Knowing there's neither limbo
Nor heaven and nor hell
Beloved life is over

Could this be me the one I see...
