One beer for the fear

Me and the band will play this evening in a place so far away.
We had practised for a long time, we've been nervous all the days.
We had whiskey, we had wine, we had a smoke, we had a line.
We've been trying to do our best, but all the stuff gave us the rest.

One beer for the fear when the evening comes near.
One beer for the fear cannot stop our career.
One whiskey too much and we got out of touch.
One beer for the fear when the concert is near.

You know we waited so long just to come here along we wanna sing our songs.
It's been too hard just to wait with the fear it's too late, the wish to play was so strong.

The lights are shining brightly into our eyes
No use complaining, there will be no disguise.
We are here just for you and we will play like hell
When we have finished tonight we've got something to tell.

One beer for the fear when the evening comes near.
One beer for the fear cannot stop our career.
One whiskey too much and we got out of touch.
One beer for the fear when the concert is near.

We're coming down to this place, we'll take a look at your face
We'll take you into our maze.
We'll never show you the door, you know what good it is for,
Want nothing else anymore.

I can't forget what I felt, it's like a thick leather belt
Wrapped around your neck.
You think you're losing your voice, but you have got no choice
There's nothing holding you back

One beer for the fear when the evening comes near.
One beer for the fear cannot stop our career.
One whiskey too much and we got out of touch.
One beer for the fear when the concert is near.
