Nemesis

I passed away in the darkness of the night
It was in times of the unholy fights
All seven deadly sins completed
The continual cries filled the air

I don't know, how long was the time
The gods kept me safe from all crime
I'll return to avenge men's deeds
This resurrection is mine

Taken from this filthy earth
I had time to watch humanity
In daily routine they drown
Living in mortal sins, denying god

I don't know, how long was the time
The gods kept me safe from all crime
I'll return to avenge men's deeds
This resurrection is mine

Sent by the devine to claim respect
A long forgotten duty of our race
Denial is a deadly curse
To receive the deadly blow

Since Noah the gods stayed calm
Regretting the unmeasurable harm
Now the time has come
To bring humanity back on the right path
For new blood to flow
Only true believe shall stay my hand

I don't know, how long was the time
The gods kept me safe from all crime
I'll return to avenge men's deeds
This resurrection is mine
