Vampire

Born as a mortal – human being
Living a daily life like all the other people
Then i was bitten in the twilight of the Night, i died and was reborn as an undead

Now I´m afraid it shines so bright – getting burned by the sunlight
Can´t just say im feeling alright
Reborn as a creature of the night
But now i stare into the sun

Somehow i survived for a 100 years
When suddenly she crossed the path I tread
My anemic heart starts beating again
With her kiss some force of life returned

Now I´m afraid it shines so bright – getting burned by the sunlight
Can´t just say im feeling alright
Reborn as a creature of the night
But now i stare into the sun

The blood in my veins pumped by my heart gave me back new strength
I sucked the lifeblood from thounds of wights cause i had to survive without a beat of my decaying heart

Sometimes I think about the time – a cold chill runs down my spine
I was afraid it shined so bright – getting burned by the sunlight
Can´t just say i felt alright
Reborn as a creature of the night
I can stare into the sun
